VISITING FELLOW HIRING PROCESS CHECKLIST

Visiting Fellows are doctoral recipients or accomplished individuals whose presence at Yale for a limited duration will be of mutual benefit. They have outside employers and are paid by the employer while at Yale. (This rank is used only on Central Campus.) Please email the application and a copy of the CV to alisa.paradise@yale.edu for approval before extending a formal invitation to the candidate and before requesting a visa with the Office of International Students and Scholars.

Funding: Visiting Fellows are ineligible for Yale compensation or Yale benefits. They must demonstrate a source of external salary support and are unable to use personal funds.

Visas: For the issuing of visas, please contact the Office of International Students and Scholars \(OISS\) 3-6 months in advance of the targeted hire date along with the approved application. Please note that the visa process does not begin until OISS has a completed OISS Connect record of the candidate.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Have a Ph.D. or be an established scholar.
- Hold a position at another university or at a company.
- Have an outside source of salary support of at least $3,200/month (personal funds are excluded).
- Have health insurance coverage.

Required Documentation: Candidates are required to provide the following documents.

- Current CV.
- Proof of external funding.
- Proof of external health insurance.
- A signed copy of the attached Research Attachment must also accompany this application. If the individual is employed by a for-profit institution, a Visiting Scientist Agreement may be required in lieu of a Research Attachment. Contact OSP for details.

Hiring Process:

1. Submit a completed Visiting Fellow application, CV, and proof of funding and health insurance to Postdoctoral Affairs.
2. If the application is approved, send the candidate a Visiting Fellow new hire letter. Begin the visa process, if required.
